Allow the Holy Spirit to guide your discussion.

Jesus call us to, ‘Follow me.’ How serious to we take that? Have you taken that? If our following a matter of degrees or are we all in? How is this reflected in our prayer life? Have you seen Gods face in prayer?

Are there areas in your life that you have never been in need, never felt God had to provide for? What areas have you always feel God needed to provide for? How does your prayer life reflect you dependence?

When is the last time you sincerely sat for our King and deeply acknowledged your sincere reject and desire to change directions? How have you processed sin in your life and it’s impact?

Are there people you have a hard time forgiving; that is paying the cost yourself for their wrong-doing? How does what they did against you compare to what you have done against Christ?

In what ways do you believe Satan is actively working against you. Does he see you as an active threat against his kingdom or has he lulled you to sleep? What deliverance do you need?
